

THE FIIPH : XXXXX

Its name is the Fiiph. It lives in ^{the} African Desert and in France. It has a long snout, four wings, pink and yellow scales, it is little. It is insectivorous because it eats insects. Eating meat causes its power to increase. It can paralyse its prey and breathe fire. It is heavier than the Nundu and more clever than the Nifflex. It is extremely dangerous because it can set cities on fire.
