

The Wither

Its name is the Wither. It has a blue shell, green hooves, and four wings. It also has a long snout.

It is big. It lives in the burrows of Australia.

It is sanguivorous because it drinks blood. It was bitten by a spider, the venom of which gave it special powers.

It can spit fire but it can also kill with its gaze.

It is less intelligent than the Niffler and it is more aggressive than the Demiguise.
