

The Bluefire xxx

Its name is the Bluefire. It has powerful hooves, a giant shell, a very short tail, a blue crest on its head and also a sharp beak. This creature is enormous. On its thick skin and its shell, it has blue and purple scales. Above its shell, it has pink and purple stripes and its eyes are red like blood. It lives in swamps in the south of Bolivia. The Bluefire mainly eats fishes because it is piscivorous, but sometimes it can eat frogs. It can spit fire and spread out its wings of its shell. It is less smart than the Niffler and more difficult to approach than the Demiguise. It is a bit dangerous because it can be aggressive.
