

The Tortoise ~~XXX~~

This is the Tortoise.

It has a green shell, four pink hooves, two giant beaks with a mane of blue feathers on each head, orange skin and short tail.

It is enormous and very frightening.

The Tortoise lives in the Atlantic Ocean along the coast of Brazil.

It is sanguivorous because it only sucks up the blood of its prey.

The Tortoise can see in the dark and spit water. It is heavier than the Panda and uglier than the Thunderbird.

The Tortoise is very friendly but if you attack it, it becomes extremely aggressive.
