

the adventures of the pig

By Kayna Julia and Alice

Once upon a time, there was a pig who lived in a cottage. His name was Diego. He was bored so he decided to leave for adventures.

One night, he fled in the forest. It was dark. It was so scary. He was tired so he stopped and slept. In the morning, the pig woke up at seven o' clock. He wanted to find a place to eat so he walked and found a pond. He stopped because he heard a noise. It was strange. As for him, it was a frog crying. And he was right: a frog was crying!

The pig said:

« Why are you crying? »
« I lost my glasses and I can't see. »
« Do you want my help ? »
« Yes, I do. I think they are in the mud. »
« Okay. I'm going to look for your glasses. »
« Oh! Thank you so much! »
« Look! Your glasses are here! » said Diego.
« Oh! Thank you my friend. You are so nice! »
« You're welcome. See you later. »

The pig continued his walk in the forest. Then, he met a lost unicorn which was chased by a dragon. She fell in a trap. Diego was scared but he decided to be brave and to help the unicorn. So, he found a sharp sword and shouted for help. Every wild animals in the forest came to help him. Together they attacked the dragon and fought bravely. The dragon died and they freed the unicorn.

Every wild animal said that the pig was very brave and invited him to live with them because he had saved them from the dragon. They lived happily all together ever after.

The end.

