

The princess and the guard

By Carolane—Camille—Eléonore and Li-

Once upon a time, there was an old king who lived with his daughter in a beautiful and nice castle. Unfortunately, the old queen had died. They were afraid by an ugly witch and her dragon who both lived in a dark and scary cave. So, the king wanted the princess and the brave knight to get married because the knight had a sword which could kill anyone.

One day, the witch kidnapped the princess and took her into her cave. The old king and a nice guard from the castle were very worried.

The day after, the guard went to save the princess who was in the cave. The old king didn't really trust him so he also sent the knight to save her. The guard saw the witch and she gave him a love potion because he was in love with the princess. Then, the guard saved the princess and made her drink the love potion. The guard and the princess went back to the castle. The old king was really relieved because, now, he knew that his daughter was safe.

The knight went to the castle too because he didn't agree with the wedding of the guard and the princess. He wanted to get married with the princess. Fortunately, the effect of the love potion stopped.

Finally, the knight and the princess got married. The old king was very happy and they lived happily ever after and had a lot of children.

The end.
