

In the future , our cities will have to be improved with ecological and technological concepts such as gyroscopic vehicles and underground tunnels.

Gyroscopic vehicles could optimise space, running above traffic thanks to telescopic legs.

Old tunnels could be used as bicycle lanes to ease traffic. They could also be used as pedestrian lanes with places to shop or exhibit art work !

Naïs-César LCE